Enlisted 17 February 1842, aged 18, born Leeds

34th Foot: From 1823 to 1829 the regiment was stationed in Britain and Ireland, at the end of which time it returned to Canada, facing the Upper Canada Rebellion during its 13-year spell there. Another short period in Britain and Ireland followed, before the regiment was deployed in 1845 to garrison the Ionian Islands.

It was in the West Indies again in 1848, returning to the Ionian Islands in 1854 and then to the Crimea the following year, fighting at Sevastopol. In 1857 it was sent out from Britain to India during the Indian Mutiny (1857-59) and stayed there 10 years.
